

The 2017 Reading Champions

Mrs Gearty would like to thank all the pupils who sent in application forms to become a class Reading Champion.

The successful candidates were announced in a KS2 assembly at the beginning of March and are:

3LH – Brent Santiago

3HP – Ruby Rattigan

3CW – Daniel Hewison

3PJ – Amber Rose Hurst

4TF – Shannon Grant

4BG – Ryan Armitage

4SR – Malachy White

4AG – Alicja Smacka

5SC – Maisie Howard

5SK – Izzy Rand

5JS – Donna Matthew

5LB – Casey Johnson

6PC – Denzel Munge

6CS – Kaitlyn Butterly

6JM – Niamh Barry

6MG – Natalie Main

Mrs Gearty has already had the Champions hard at work recording video versions of Mr. Men stories for World Book Day and judging entries to the Mr. Men Mini Masterpiece competition.

Look out for their assembly next term.

St Joseph's Catholic Primary School's

Reading Tree

Mr. Men Mania!

World Book Day 2017 saw our school community come together to celebrate the marvellous world of the Mr. Men and Little Misses!

These delightful characters have been around for over forty years and their appeal is as bright as it was in the 1970's when they first appeared in book shops costing just 15p!

During the day, children were engaged in various activities: creating their own Mr. Men, writing prequels and sequels to some much loved Mr. Men stories, dreaming up Mr. Men riddles and of course reading lots and lots of Mr. Men books!

The school library was taken over for Colourful and imaginative Mr. Men and Little Miss costumes were the order of the day !

the day by life-size Mr. Men and Little Misses all with special challenges for the children to complete!

With 52 Mr. Men books and 39 Little Miss titles, these charismatic characters should keep our pupils reading for a long time!

World Book Day 2017

Just look at how we spent our day!

Mrs Partridge starts as she means to go on...by sharing a favourite Mr. Men tale!

Miss Jarvis thinks even the smallest members of 2SJ need a costume!

Poor old Mr. Bump! He really has been in the wars!

There's nothing quite like getting your hands dirty...Mr. Messy style!

Phew! This daydreaming is harder than it looks! I wonder how Mr. Daydream does it!

Mr. Strong shows us how he got his name!

Quiet please! Future authors hard at work!

Doesn't every Little Miss Princess need their very own crown?

Watch out! Watch out! There's a tickle (or two!) about!

School lunches get a Mr. Men make over!

You're never too old for Mr. Men!